PreAP English I
Summer Reading Assignment
2017-18

Hello Future Jaguar,

We look forward to having you as a student in PreAP English I at FM9. In preparation for the 2017-18 school year, you are required to complete a summer reading assignment. This year the assignment includes reading a novel of your choice and being prepared to analyze that novel using concepts from the book How to Read Literature Like a Professor for Kids by Thomas C. Foster.

The primary goal is for students to enjoy reading this summer. Please read the directions and contact us with any questions. We hope that you have a safe, restful summer and that reading is a part of this summer's enjoyment.

Sincerely,
Wendi Baker

1. Purchase and read the book How to Read Literature Like a Professor for Kids by Thomas C. Foster
ISBN: 978-0-06-220085-3 Harper Collins Publishers
(Available at Barnes & Noble or Amazon)
2. Choose a novel to read using the following guidelines:
 - Fiction novel
 - Minimum of 300 pages
 - Cannot have been read/taught in middle school
 - Cannot be a book that has been made into a film/movie
 - Cannot be a photo/graphic/picture book
 - Cannot have been published prior to 2015
 - Cannot be from the Percy Jackson/Rick Riordan series or similar reading level
 - Must have parents' permission to read the novel
3. Bring both books on the first day of class ☺
4. Email Mrs. Baker if you have any questions about this assignment or the book you wish to read.

 This summer reading assignment will apply to all students regardless of GT distinctions.

*Both books must be read by the first day of school, August 28, 2017.
Students should expect an assessment during the first two weeks of class over the novel.
Students who begin class in January will test in January.

WARNING: Do not procrastinate completing this assignment based on what your schedule indicates. Students who experience a schedule change from a spring class to a fall class will not receive extended time. Both books should be completed over the summer!
