

N2K Week 1 Lesson 1

The First Americans: What a 12,000-Year Old Skull Reveals

(adapted from Upfront Magazine September 1, 2014 edition)

- (1) Where did the first humans in the Americas come from? (2) The 12,000-year old skeleton of a teenage girl found in an underwater cave in Mexico, the oldest genetically intact human skeleton ever discovered in the Americas, might help solve the mystery. (3) DNA analysis of the skeleton, dubbed “Naia,” reveals that she’s related to the hunter-gatherers who migrated between 17,000 and 25,000 years ago from Asia across the Bering Strait. (4) In addition, part of her DNA is shared by many Native Americans today, which suggests that they are related to those Asian hunter-gatherers as well. (5) The discovery may disprove other theories that the first Americans came from Europe or the South Pacific at various times. (6) As for Naia, we may never know how she died at about age 15 but it looks like she fell into the cave, which was dry at the time. (7) “We were totally mesmerized looking at her skull,” says Alberto Nava, who discovered Naia. (8) “We knew this was a special find.”

1. What mistake should be corrected in sentence 1?
 - A. The word “come” is not necessary in the sentence.
 - B. Americas should not be capitalized.
 - C. The beginning of the paragraph should be indented.

2. What does the word “dubbed” mean in sentence 3?
 - A. named to give credit
 - B. a new music
 - C. copied

3. What spelling change, if any, should be made in sentence 6?
 - A. “know” should be changed to “no”
 - B. “feel” should be changed to “fell”
 - C. “which” should be changed to “witch”

4. What punctuation change, if any should be made in sentence 6?
 - A. The comma after “cave” should be removed.
 - B. The period should be changed to an exclamation mark
 - C. A comma should be added before the conjunction “but”.

N2K Week 1 Lesson 2

Directions: Each of the following sentences contains one or more errors. Find the errors and correct the sentences in the box below.

The cost of making a long-distance phone call, which can be high. Makes it hard. To keep in touch with family and friends except through letters.

Another option, of course, e-mail. But not everyone has a computer.

[illegible]

N2K Week 1 Lesson 3

Directions: Each of the following sentences contains one or more errors. Find the errors and correct the sentences in the space provided.

1. When I was younger, I played sports and do well at them.
2. Now I am awful in sports but I will do well at schoolwork.
3. I always try, even if I thought something was difficult.

N2K Week 1 Lesson 4

Directions: Each of the following sentences contains one or more errors. Find the errors and correct the sentences.

1. I like to record the things me and my friends do.
2. My journal writing is a secret between my journal and I.
3. My best friend and me share almost everything but we don't share our journals.

N2K Week 1 Lesson 5

Directions: Each of the following sentences contains one or more errors. Find the errors and correct the sentences.

1. Specific verbs communicate more better then general verbs.
2. It may be harder to find the most vividest word but its worth the trouble.